

Pirate Treasure Hunt

Look inside the ages 6-9 edition before you buy.

Two original pages follow this introduction

1. The read-aloud story and pirate-name introduction (original page 7).
2. Easier and more difficult maze templates (original page 14).

These are unchanged excerpts from the current game PDF, not a complete game. Page references in the excerpts refer to the full kit. Some referenced materials are therefore not included in this sample. An adult leads the full adventure.

The full product includes both ages 4-6 and ages 6-9 editions. The younger edition is not shown in this preview.

PREPARATION: The Story

The game leader reads the story at every station:

“Ahoy, brave adventurers!
Imagine this: In the heart of the Seven Seas, where the sun scorches the water and distant islands hide untold secrets, you sail with your fearless pirate crew aboard a breathtaking ship – the Golden Galleon. You are known for your courage and cleverness – true adventurers who fear no danger and are always searching for glory and treasure!

One morning, as your ship gently rocks on the waves, the wind carries a mysterious piece of parchment onto the deck. You pick it up – an old, tattered treasure map! Its edges are worn by salt and time, yet in the center shines a message written in golden, swirling letters:

Lay out the scroll from printable p. 8 and let the children read:

“Whoever seeks the treasure of the Black Pearl must be wise and brave enough to face the trials of pirate legends. Follow the clues and keep the path in your heart – only the truly worthy will claim the treasure.”

TIP:

READ THE STORY
OUT LOUD AT EVERY STATION.
PRINT THE
SCROLL AND ROLL
IT UP ONCE OR CRUMPLE IT SLIGHTLY.

Let all the kids shout “Arrr!”

You immediately know: This is no ordinary adventure! This quest isn’t just about gold – it’s about the legacy of the greatest pirates of all time. With a determined “Arrr!” you raise the sails.

Preparation

The game leader reads the story at every station:

“Your ship, the Golden Galleon, cuts bravely through the shimmering waves of the Southern Sea. The sun burns on the water, and you are already close to the Beach of a Thousand Keys. But suddenly—out of nowhere—a thick bank of fog appears! The wind goes silent, the ship seems to stop completely, and a deep, mysterious voice echoes across the sea:

Whoever dares to embark on this journey needs more than courage and a strong ship! To claim the legacy of the pirate legends, you must find your place in history. No pirate sails the Seven Seas without a name! Choose your pirate names and join the ranks of the great buccaneers!

What is the name of the new pirate aboard?

TIP:

Task: Cut out the name tags from the printable on p. 8. Use the suggested names or let the children create their own pirate names. Once the children have their name tags, they should shout their names out loud.

PREPARE DOUBLE-
SIDED TAPE TO GIVE THE
CHILDREN THEIR
NAME TAGS SO
THEY DON'T FORGET THEIR
NEW PIRATE IDENTITY!

The children shout their new pirate names one after another—and from this moment on, they may only address each other by their pirate names!

With every pirate name shouted across the sea, the fog begins to lift. Soon you can see the sparkling water again—the crew is now complete! Hoist the sails, mates, and head straight toward the Beach of a Thousand Keys. Are you ready?
